SureReceipts

If you're e-mailing appraisals, you could be in serious compliance trouble. With SureReceipts, you can securely send any document to any recipient, backed by a full audit trail for compliance verification so you'll know when the borrower received it and when it was read.

Mercury Network customers have free access with unlimited sends, and it's already fully integrated. If you don't use Mercury Network, you can still use SureReceipts to send appraisal docs for only 50¢ per send. Plus, your first 10 sends are free, so you have nothing to lose in trying it.
